

Too big for bail-in?

-

The first stress test for the European Banking Union

9th January 2017, 10:00 a.m. ó 6:00 p.m.

Technology University
Berlin
Conference Room H
3143 (TU main building)
Straße des 17. Juni 135
10623 Berlin

Participation only after confirmation!

Registration:
Fax 0049 30 84314137
E-Mail [message@europolis-
online.org](mailto:message@europolis-online.org)

Contact:
Tel. 0049 30 84314136
E-Mail [message@europolis-
online.org](mailto:message@europolis-online.org)

I. Legal and institutional framework (10:00 a.m. ó 12:30 a.m.)

- 1. Introduction to the topic: The bail-in ó Legal postulate and political reality
Prof. Dr. Markus C. Kerber, Professor of Public finance and Political economy, TU-Berlin
- 2. The application of the rules of the Banking Union, in particular the BRRD-Directive (bail-in)
Samy Harraz, Head of Policy and International at the Single Resolution Board, Brussels
- 3. The application of the õbail-inö from the perspective of an insolvency expert
Prof. Dr. Christoph G. Paulus, Professor for Civil Law, Procedural Law, Insolvency Law and ancient Legal History, HU-Berlin
- 4. The application of State aid rules in the case of the Italian banking crisis: The EU Commission Decision of 10th February 2016
Bernhard Windisch, Policy Officer, State aids II: Task Force Financial crisis, EU-Commission
- 5. The Bail-in Procedure from an Ordoliberal Perspective
Gunther Schnabl, University of Leipzig, Institute for Economic Policy
- 6. Expectations and Predictions about bail-in from a U.S. perspective
Prof. Jay L. Westbrook, University of Texas at Austin

II. The practitioners' view (1:30 p.m. ó 3:30 p.m.)

2. Bail-in - Implementing the Concept
Dr. Jutta Dönges, Chair of the Management Committee of the Federal Agency for Financial Market Stabilisation (FMSA)
3. Comments from France
Benoît de la Chapelle Bizot, Director General General ó French Banking Federation (FBF)
4. Bail-in rules for member institutions of an IPS ó proportional or not?
Dr. Olaf Ahtelik, Department law/banking supervision, National Association of German Cooperative Banks

III. EU-members' view from outside the Eurozone (4:00 p.m. ó 5:30 p.m.)

1. Poland and the European Banking Union: First experiences
Prof. Dr. Zbigniew Pola ski, National Bank of Poland