

New Direction – The Foundation for European Reform, invites you to a lecture:

The future of the euro

In the light of the ruling of the German Constitutional Court

By Professor Dr Markus C. Kerber

The initiator of a legal challenge against the eurozone bailouts in Germany

From 18:00, 21 September 2011

Rue d'Arlon 40, Brussels

The lecture will be followed by a reception.

Attendance by invitation only. Please confirm your participation as seats will be limited to:
rsvp@newdirectionfoundation.org
by 19 September 2011

www.newdirectionfoundation.org

Rue d'Arlon 40

1000 Brussels

BELGIUM

Telephone: +32-2 808 7847

Professor Dr Markus Kerber, Berlin-based academic, will discuss his views on the future of the euro only a few days after the German Constitutional Court rejected his challenge against the eurozone bailouts. Professor Kerber together with the think-tank Europolis, consisting of 55 German entrepreneurs and academics, filed several constitutional complaints earlier this year against the Treaty of Lisbon, financial aid for Greece and the euro zone's rescue mechanism, the European Financial Stability Facility (EFSF).

Professor at the Technical University of Berlin, Professor Kerber has been practicing EU competition law for over 30 years.

Upcoming lectures:

December 2011

"There is an alternative" by Professor Dr. Hans-Olaf Henkel, professor of Business Economics at the University of Mannheim. (tbc)

For more information go to www.newdirectionfoundation.org